A few things you need to know:

The cost of a celebration cake is $12.50 per person, this includes sparklers for presentation and garnishes that will be served along with the cake.

If everyone at the table is having the Three courses for $70 option, you can have the cake as your dessert and not pay any extra.

We require a minimum of eight guests to make a celebration cake, for tables less than this we are happy to write a message on a dessert plate and send it out with sparklers. If you would like to order a celebration cake take away the cost is $90.

If you have a favourite cake that is not on our cake menu we are happy to make it for you.

Any cake that is left over is yours, so feel free to take it home to enjoy with a cup of tea later on.

All we need to know is:

What sort of cake you wish to have at least 48 hours before the day of the booking and what message if any you would like written on the cake.
